

What Took You So Long

V1

Three little girls standing hand and hand anxiously awaiting to ride the church van with their pink little coats and their big brown eyes looking up and down along the roadside as we pulled down the lane, they smiled, and they waved their little ponytails dancing as they jumped in place, and as I open the door to help them climb in she looked at me and said

Chorus

What took you so long?
We thought you never come
People pass by one by one
What took you so long?
What took you so long?
So much time has come and gone
We thought you never come
What took you so long?

V2

As the day went on, the words echoed in my ear. I could hear Jesus speaking. The words were so clear you are the salt of the Earth and the light of the world The commission is go ye to all preach my word. You know the harvest is ripe, and the laborers are a few who will tell them the gospel who will take them the truth, and as I stood there in shame as tears fill my eyes, I could hear, lost souls as they cried.
What took you so long?

Time is so short , Christ coming is near
He that hath an ear let him hear.
